

NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

We have been saving the following column written by James Roberts of The Andrews County News for use in this spot and feel that this Thanksgiving season is an appropriate time to run it.

We were striding down one of those interminable long corridors at Love Field heading for our gate to catch a late afternoon flight home.

Suddenly he appeared at our side. Stride for stride, his small legs stretched and stretched until he managed to stay even with us.

"I'm walking as fast as you are!" "You sure are!"

"I'm on my way to meet my daddy. He's comin' in on a jet all the way from Vietnam and if I'm big enough he's gonna take me fishin'."

"Are you all alone? Where are the rest of your folks?"

"They're waitin' for him at the gate. I had to go to the bathroom. Momma said I had time before the plane arrived."

"How long has it been since you've seen your daddy?"

"He was here for five days two years ago when I was just a little boy. Do you think I'm big enough to go fishin' now?"

"How old are you?"

"I'm five and a half years old and I've been taking care of momma for two years . . . I won't have to do that any more now that daddy's not in Vietnam . . . and momma says he'll have his medals, his ribbons, and everything when he gets off the plane."

"Grandma and grandpa are here too from Corsicana cause they want to see Daddy too. But grandma is sick."

"What is the matter with your grandma?"

"I don't know but I guess it hurts real bad cause while ago while we were talkin' about Daddy coming home she was cryin'. I guess she really hurts bad."

"I've got a baby sister too but she's just a little bitty thing—she can't go fishin' with my daddy. Babies don't go fishin' do they? My daddy has a mustache and momma says he's gonna keep it for a while but he left his gun over in Vietnam so some other soldiers can use it. He's not gonna need it anymore momma says."

"And she says I'm not to even look at or talk about daddy's funny leg. It's a new one that the doctors give him but it won't keep him from takin' me fishin' . . . momma says we can catch just as much fish anyway . . . do you always walk this fast, mister?"

"I bet my daddy can walk this fast too, don't you? I'm walking fast as you. All big boys walk this fast, don't they? If you walk this fast, you're big enough to go fishin' with your daddy aren't you?"

"I bet my daddy can walk this fast too, don't you? I'm walking fast as you. All big boys walk this fast, don't they? If you walk this fast, you're big enough to go fishin' with your daddy aren't you?"

"I bet my daddy can walk this fast too, don't you? I'm walking fast as you. All big boys walk this fast, don't they? If you walk this fast, you're big enough to go fishin' with your daddy aren't you?"

Our gate was on down the corridor but curiosity compelled us to wait a few minutes and watch as the tousled-headed youngster skipped over to join his family watching through the big panes of glass as the airliner slid into the slot.

A few moments later, the crowd from the plane started spilling out of the chute into the lobby.

One of the last to come through, was a tall, well-built, tousled-headed soldier, chest covered with ribbons, face pale from too-long in a hospital, and walking with a cane on either side of a swinging artificial leg.

After the hugs, the kisses, the tears, a proud papa swept the small boy into his arms, mentioning something about how the youngster had grown, how big he was . . . and in a voice that could be heard all over the lobby, the small boy asked:

"I've grown enough to be big enough to go fishin' haven't I daddy?"

Fisher County Ranks 59th In Oil, Gas Production

Fisher County's petroleum industry produces 6,655,730 barrels of crude oil valued at $21,359,867 and 7,881,698 thousand cubic feet of natural gas valued at $1,079,792 for an annual economic value of $22,439,659.

These figures, just released by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association, show the county ranked 59th among state counties in oil and gas production during 1969.

Texas production which has registered an increase over each previous year during the past decade hit another all-time high in 1969 with 1,151,775,000 barrels, according to U. S. Bureau of Mines statistics. This is a production increase of 24.2% since 1960.

"Production from Fisher County helped meet this record demand," says Kenneth E. Montague, Association President. "We are now calling on it and the rest of Texas to meet an even greater demand as events in the Middle East have again forced us to dip into our declining reserves. Unfortunately, the price for Texas oil is inadequate to stimulate enough exploratory drilling to replace reserves."

Fisher County landowners and others with mineral interests received $2,804,957 in royalty payments last year. Texas received $982,554 from crude oil production taxes and $76,665 from natural gas production taxes.

Estimated drilling expenditures totaled $956,883 with $313,800 of that amount spent on dry holes yielding nothing for the driller. Ira Rinehart's Yearbook showed drillers completed 23 oil wells, 1 gas well and 20 dry holes. Eighteen wildcats were drilled with 17 of them dry.

The county's oil and gas processing plants also added to the economy. The Oil and Gas Journal listed 2 natural gasoline plants with a capacity of 11.0 million cubic feet daily.

Reports from the Texas Employment Commission show some 49 persons were directly employed by the oil and gas industry in the county with an annual payroll of $390,208.

'3.76 IN '76' PROGRAM—

Nine Percent Increase In Farm Products Set As Goal for 1976

Cash receipts from all agricultural products in Jones County should be more than $10,514,000 by the end of 1976. This would be one billion dollars more than the cash receipts of $2.75 billion reported in the 1968-69 crop year, which serves as a base for the 1976 projections.

Guidelines for production and marketing of cotton, grain sorghum and wheat are available in the County Agricultural Agent's office at the courthouse. In addition, Extension specialists in livestock and range management are scheduled to be in the county in February and March to help producers achieve the goals.

Area Baptists Set Mission Rally Nov. 30 In Aspermont

November 30 has been the date set for the Mission's Rally for West Central Baptist Association, announced Rev. J. C. Appleby, moderator of the association and pastor at Cross Roads. The meeting will be held in the First Baptist Church, Aspermont, beginning at 6:15 p. m. with the Executive Board Meeting. Program to begin at 7:00 p. m.

The main speaker for the Mission's Rally will be Rev. W. A. Solesbee, missionary to the Philippines. Solesbee was born in Arkansas and grew up in Megargel, Texas. He received his BA degree from Hardin-Simmons University. BD, MRE degrees from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary; was appointed to China in 1947 where he served thirteen months; helped begin work in the Philippines and served there for 22 years. Solesbee is promotion secretary of religious education and is now on leave of absence and staying in Abilene.

A pageant, "Make His Name Glorious" will be presented by the Knox City W. MU.

year by the Extension Service; and is a concentrated effort to have $3.76 billion in cash receipts before the end of 1976. This would be one billion dollars more than the cash receipts of $2.75 billion reported in the 1968-69 crop year, which serves as a base for the 1976 projections.

Guidelines for production and marketing of cotton, grain sorghum and wheat are available in the County Agricultural Agent's office at the courthouse. In addition, Extension specialists in livestock and range management are scheduled to be in the county in February and March to help producers achieve the goals.

The 3.76 program was announced in January by Dr.

John E. Hutchison, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, after two months of intensive study by groups of specialists who determine long range projections on the agricultural commodity groups produced in the state. The figures that resulted from the studies were predicted cash receipts, not including government subsidies to producers.

Texas currently accounts for more than five percent of the nation's agricultural income; but to meet the 3.76 in '76 goal, Texas must increase its rate of growth to ten percent of the projected national increase in cash receipts, according to Dr. Hutchison.

FROM THE FILES . . .

FORTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
(November 27, 1925)

Pursuant to an invitation from the Texas Tax Club, the Editor of the Herald and incidentally a member of the Texas House of Representatives, left last Saturday night for Austin to participate in deliberations, unofficially, with the Club relative to the attempt of the Texas Tax Club to bring pressure to bear on the national Congress to repeal the Federal Inheritance Tax Law. This meeting was held Monday morning at ten o'clock in the Senate Chamber. About one hundred Representatives and Senators were present and listened to the discussions of the reasons why the Federal Inheritance Tax should be repealed. At a mid-day luncheon at the Austin Hotel, the members of the legislature took up this matter as to a formal expression from them to our members in Congress. A strong resolution was passed, unanimously, asking that this repeal be made. A further resolution was also passed asking that the inheritance tax on tax exempt governmental securities remain as they are now. For this is the only way of making such wealth bear its share of the tax burden.

This week the Santa Fe surveying crew is running a line into Hamlin from the northwest. They are indicating that they would join the Abilene & Southern near the Oil Mill. But railroad building in West Texas is very uncertain, however there is considerable talk that the Santa Fe is contemplating buying the A. & S. road from Hamlin to Ballinger. This would undoubtedly develop into one of their best paying branches. But the Santa Fe is laying out extensive plans for the future and possibly to hold down territory that other roads may wish to occupy. Hamlin would certainly welcome a Santa Fe railroad, and here is hoping that they will tap the good territory north of us and extend the line down to Ballinger.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Holly and Holly Pardue Toler returned late last week from a deer hunting trip into Mason County and Holly Pardue was the proud possessor of two deer as trophies of his prowess. His father was less fortunate and did not get a shot.

Another Hamlin party composed of W. C. Russell, Stan and Art Carmichael, E. J. Whaley, and Dickie Ferguson returned Tuesday night from another lease in Mason County. Stan Carmichael got one buck and E. J. Whaley bagged two. Otherwise the Hamlin group had to be content with memories of a pleasant experience.

Officers of the Hamlin chapter of the Future Farmers of America will attend a chapter conducting contest to be held in Abilene next Wednesday, November 29.

The contest will be held for chapters in the Abilene district and only chapter officers will participate as representatives.

Hamlin's Pied Pipers took to the gridiron for their season's finale Friday night against the Rotan Yel-lowhammers and the result of the contest was never in doubt.

Rotan, which has been the doormat of District 6-A for the entire season appeared to be ill-disposed to offer opposition to the attack of the Pipers and when the smoke of battle had cleared the tally totaled 61-6 for the Hamlin eleven.

So one-sided was the contest that Hamlin was able to register only one first down in the first half despite a 38-6 advantage in the scoring. Scoring rules do not permit the crediting of a first down when a score is tallied, and each time that the Pipers gained possession of the ball they were able to score before their allotment of four downs had been used up.

Knabel Jewelers will celebrate their Seventh Anniversary in Hamlin with the Formal Opening in their new location on South Central. The opening will start Friday morning at 9 a.m. and runs through Wednesday. Knabels welcome all of their friends and customers to come by their store during their opening and register for the door prizes to be awarded Wednesday evening.

The new store features ample room to display their huge stock of fine jewelry, watches and other gift items which is the largest stock they have ever carried in the seven years they have been in Hamlin.

Although they have been in their new location since earlier in the fall, they have been adding the finishing touches to the store this past week in preparation for this big event.

The Hamlin High School Pied Piper Band won a first at the Interscholastic League Precision Marching competition held in San Angelo Saturday.

Hamlin was one of four bands of the 12 AA School bands there to win division I ratings. Division I ratings were received on inspection and marching. The others were Haskell, Winters and Ballinger.

Santa Claus in all his glory and pomp will come to Hamlin next Thursday, December 1, at 3:30 in the afternoon to inaugurate the Christmas season. All Hamlin business houses are expected to have their windows decorated for the occasion, with special displays of merchandise for the Christmas season.

Feature of the festivities will be arrival of Santa Claus atop a huge elephant and tossing candy to youngsters as a colorful parade heads down Central Avenue. The parade, will be lead by the 54-piece Hamlin High School Band under the direction of Tim Jones. Other features will include the HHS Girl's Pep Squad and other participants.

Mrs. E. M. Wilson announced this week the sale of The Book Shop to Tommy Davis, owner of Tommy's Flowers.

Mrs. Wilson, who has owned and operated The Book Shop for 18 years, will retire.

The store will close November 28 for inventory and will re-open in December under the new ownership.

SURE HANDS OF THE SURGEON

A child walks . . . an arm is straightened . . . a growth is removed . . . these and many other things are the result of the fine work of the surgeon. This is an occupation and a labor worthy of appreciation.

A star . . . a new born baby . . . the world itself . . . these and many other things reveal God to us. "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork."

Psalms 19, 1

God has wrought a great work. Let us show our love and appreciation
by worshipping him in Church

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Neinda Philosopher Gives His No-Lose Football
Problem Over to the Two Party Chairmen

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One turns one of his problems over to the experts this week. Dear Editor:

You know, from time to time in between international crises and on-the-farm obligations, like the time I rode my tractor eight hours straight without stopping trying to get a crop planted before it rained and made it. In fact, made it three months before it rained and the seeds never did sprout, anyway, in my spare time I have devoted a considerable amount of time trying to figure out a way to play football without both teams winning every game.

What I'm doing is trying to preserve the sport. Like it is, with every game played, from junior high school through college to the professionals, unless it's a tie, half the fans always leave the stands disappointed if not heart-broken. The game is skating on thin ice, so to speak, like the coach who said they were trying to make a political football out of a basketball scandal.

Think, how long would Gun Smoke last if half its audience was always disappointed at the way it ended? Football is a great spectator sport. I follow it on television myself, but if they don't figure out some way to keep fans on both sides happy, it's in trouble.

Regrettably I have never been able to figure out how to change the game so everybody can always come away happy and victorious, both bands playing and everybody slapping everybody else on the back, but I have now done the next best thing. I have discovered the people who can.

They are the chairman of the Republican Party and the chairman of the Democratic Party.

I read in four different newspapers that each one of these men has claimed that his party won the November elections, and they've made such a good case that nobody in the country is sure which one is right. As a result, everybody thinks his side won, nobody lost, and everybody came away from the polls victorious.

I know, when I'm outclassed. I turn my football problem over to them.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Mrs. A. A. Hackley Presents Literary Club Program

Appreciation of our American heritage was stressed in the program presented by Mrs. A. A. Hackley for members of Woman's Literary Club Friday afternoon.

Meeting in the home of Mrs. Virgil Steele, the club members were stirred with the theme of patriotism in Mrs. Hackley's presentation of "American Heritage through Thanksgiving." She told of the pilgrims voyage that originated in Holland in 1620 and noted the 350th anniversary being this year.

Each member was given an American flag.

Mrs. Tarlton Willingham was program director. The invocation was given by Mrs. Charles Hilburn.

The group led by Mrs. L. H. McBride, sang "America." Mrs. E. E. Monkes played the piano accompaniment.

Mrs. Claude McDonald led the Club Collect.

During the business session, with Mrs. Donald Young, president, presiding, the resignation of Mrs. Hilburn was read and accepted. Mrs. McBride was appointed to secure a name for corresponding secretary to fill the office formerly held by Mrs. Hilburn.

Jan Albritton and Claud Matney were honored with a Gourmet Party Saturday evening in the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Perrin.

Guests were served a buffet dinner from a table covered with a fringed tapestry cloth. Brass serving dishes were used. The centerpiece was a brass candelabra entwined with white orchids and yellow roses.

Forty-six guests were present. Out-of-town guests were from Sweetwater, Abilene and Austin.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Albritton, parents of the bride-to-be, and Mrs. William Brooks Matney of Austin, mother of the prospective bridegroom.

Gifts to the honored couple were the giver's favorite recipe and an ingredient.

Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Reynolds Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Carmichael of Abilene joined with Dr. and Mrs. Perrin in hosting the party.

The couple will be married Saturday evening in the First Baptist Church.

MRS. JACK HAUGHT

Dallas Rites Unite Knoerzer, Haught

The chapel of the Tyler Street United Methodist Church, Dallas, was the scene for the 8 p.m. Saturday double ring ceremony of Susan Knoerzer and Jack Haught.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Knoerzer of 6406 Forest Knoll, Dallas. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Haught of Hamlin.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of chiffon over satin. The empire bodice was designed with a high neckline and full sleeves. The cuffs, empire waist and neck line were re-embroidered lace.

Miss Basham's gown was moss green chiffon over satin with empire waist. She carried a nosegay of mixed fall flowers.

Ushers were Jim Haught of Arlington, brother of the bridegroom, and Mike Phew of Dallas.

The reception was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Knoerzer in their home.

After a wedding trip to Las Vegas, Nevada, the couple will reside at 3090 Spruce Valley Ln. in Dallas.

The bride is a graduate of Kimball High School in Dallas and is employed by Tannebaum, Bindler and Lewis, Certified Public Accountants in Dallas.

DON'T BLOW IT NOW

DRIVE FRIENDLY has made a difference. In 1970, Texas can experience an annual decrease in the number of deaths on streets and highways. As of now, the number of traffic deaths is below that of a year ago. If this trend continues, there will be an actual decrease in the number of Texans killed in traffic—this despite one-half million more licensed drivers than a year ago.

This is practically unheard of. The traffic death trend during the past decade has been almost consistently up . . . 2,254 deaths in 1960; 2,314 in 1961; 2,421 in 1962, and so it has gone, almost without exception, right up to 3,551 in 1969.

But 1970 has been the year of DRIVING FRIENDLY. This has meant obeying traffic laws, planning travel to avoid rushing, not driving and drinking. In other words, maintaining a friendly driving attitude toward others.

Yes, 1970 has been the year of DRIVING FRIENDLY. It can also be the year the relentless trend of more and more highway murders was reversed. But there are still five weeks to go. This Thanksgiving weekend, think of your responsibilities every time you take the wheel.

We're ahead of 1969 now, and we can finish that way. So, DON'T BLOW IT NOW!

This Thanksgiving, Keep DRIVING FRIENDLY . . . it works
